Recession Points Up The Meed For County Parks

Our county parks proved their worth in 1975 as never before. They were a godsend to residents hit by the recession, hurt by inflation, and limited by soaring gasoline prices.

There are many things you can do in Bergen's county parks without spending money: play tennis, walk through the children's zoo and 1860s' farm scene, visit the Wildlife Center with its exhibit hall and live animal shelters, attend a nature program, take a guided hike, explore hiking trails on your own, ride on a bicycle trail, fish in a pond, picnic under a tree, swing and slide on playground equipment, visit a historic spring and a Revolutionary War burial site, stroll through a rose garden and a rhododendron garden, skate on the ponds and flooded play courts, go sledding, play shuffleboard, pitch horseshoes, shoot baskets, ride the Ramapo River current on a raft, feed ducks, and sail model boats.

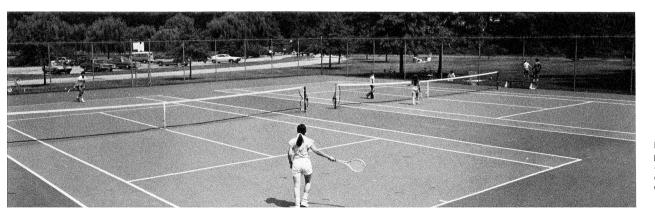

When we must charge, we charge as little as possible. A child can ride on a train for 15 cents and on a pony for 25 cents. A Bergen senior citizen or registered minor pays 50 cents to spend a summer weekday enjoying Darlington Park's swimming and fishing lakes, picnic groves, and games courts, and the cost is $1 for a Commission-registered adult under 65.

A registered Bergen adult pays $2 and a registered minor $1 to ski for a weekday afternoon or evening on Campgaw Mountain. With Commission registration, the weekday greens fee is $3 for 18 holes of golf—$1.50 for a Bergen resident over 65.

County-sponsored buses go to Van Saun and Darlington Parks during the summer, making stops in 63 Bergen towns en route, and the Cross-County bus goes to entrances at Van Saun and the Wildlife Center year round.

The Board of Freeholders and Park Commission would like every Bergen resident, whatever his means, to be able to derive pleasure from the county parks.

Parks

Are

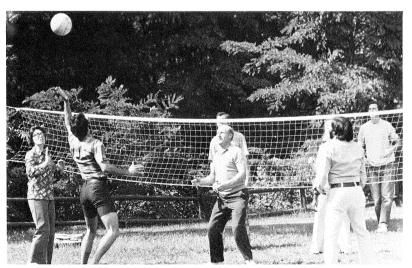

For Happiness

Happiness is feeding a pony, poking through a playground climber, catching a big fish, having a picnic, ringing a stake with a horseshoe, going skiing, going swimming, flying a kite, playing volley ball, camping in a tent—to name a few of the activities pursued in the Bergen County park system.

Tennis courts, golf courses, children's railroads, a pony ring, a wildlife center, a children's zoo, bicycle trails, hiking trails, guided hikes, nature programs, horseback riding facilities, ball fields, woodland and rose gardens, a wayside historical park, an 1860s' farmyard replica, shuffleboard courts, and ice skating ponds and flooded rinks are among sources of enjoyment in the county parks.

A Riding Center Opens In Overpeck Park

An all-weather horseback riding center, a 1-mile bicycle-trail extension with two bridges, a pony ring, a football-soccer field, and a field-house were opened for use in county parks during 1975.

Seven new tennis courts were readied for final surfacing, which was to be applied when temperatures are favorable in the spring of 1976.

The all-weather riding center, in Overpeck Park's Leonia South Area, at year end had a 110-by-220-foot indoor arena, two completed paddocks (construction had begun on a third paddock), and a completed section of fenced bridle trail. As more hydraulic fill settles, the bridle trail will be extended.

RIDING CLASSES OFFERED

The center opened with a stable of 30 horses and by year end was authorized to add 10 more. Patrons of similar ability and experience are grouped for instruction sessions so that the personnel and facilities can accommodate as many people as possible. A hay and grain building, tack room, and manager's apartment are part of the complex.

With the new extension and bridges, Saddle River County Park's northern bicycle trail is 3 miles long. One of the bridges links the park's Dunkerhook and Glen Rock Areas. The other bridge links the bicycle trail section on the Fair Lawn side of the Saddle River with the Dunkerhook Area. A new 3,000-foot path provides access to the trail from the intersection of Saddle River Road and Fair Lawn Avenue, Fair Lawn.

BICYCLE CROSSING PLANNED

A consulting engineer was engaged to draw plans for a bicycle-pedestrian crossing of the Saddle River linking bicycle paths in the Rochelle

> THE LAKESIDE path at the Glen Rock Area is part of a 3-mile bicycle-pedestrian trail in Saddle River County Park.

BICYCLISTS approach one of the two new bridges—spanning the Saddle River and Ho-Ho-Kus Brook—on the 3-mile trail.

Park and Saddle Brook Areas of Saddle River County Park. A 1-mile path is projected for the Rochelle Park side of the stream, and Park Commission plans call for extending the existing Saddle Brook path to the Railroad Avenue Bridge.

The Park Commission established a pony ring in Van Saun County Park in 1975. An addition was built on the farmyard-scene barn to house the ponies temporarily, and an architect was engaged to draw plans for a pony barn.

ATHLETIC FIELDS BUILT

The football field in Overpeck County Park's Leonia North Area was completed in time for the 1975 season. (The baseball field in the area was virtually completed and is scheduled to open in spring of 1976.) A stone-surface roadway and two parking areas were constructed in 1975 for Leonia North, and construction began on a fieldhouse for use with both athletic fields and containing rest rooms for the park area.

The fieldhouse which was completed in 1975 is in the Riverside Park North Area in Lyndhurst. It is used by teams playing on the fenced athletic field equipped with lights. The contemporary-style fieldhouse, with its sloping roof and clerestory window, contains locker and shower rooms for both teams and a first aid room.

TENNIS COURTS AND LIGHTS

Four of the tennis courts nearly completed in 1975 are in the Leonia North Area of Overpeck Park. The other three are in the Fair Lawn portion of Saddle River County Park. There will be no charge for use of the courts.

Lighting was installed for the tennis courts in Overpeck Park's Palisades Park Area and in both the North and South Areas of Riverside Park. At year end installation of lighting was nearing completion at Wood Dale Park's courts.

Rest rooms were constructed in a house which came with the Ramapo Valley County Reservation site. Outside stairs were part of the project. Plans were made for utilizing part of the house as a nature education office.

GARDEN TERRACE STARTED

Work began on a flagstone terrace in the rhododendron garden being developed gradually beside the drive for the Bergen County Park Commission Wildlife Center. In other parks Commission crews planted 91 trees and 115 shrubs during 1975.

A consulting engineer was hired to draw preliminary plans for new concrete diving platforms at Darlington Park's swimming lakes.

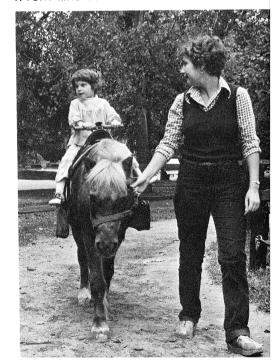

Work was completed on the base for a running track around the football field in the Palisades Park Area of Overpeck Park.

Eight-lesson riding courses were an innovation at Saddle Ridge Horseback Riding Area. Lighting extended hours of operation at Saddle Ridge when the daylight hours waned.

NATURE PROGRAMS FOR ALL

The Park Commission scheduled free public nature programs weekends and Tuesdays January through November. There were film festivals in February and December for vacationing school children. Park Commission naturalists scheduled special programs for 924 school classes.

A PONY RING was established at Van Saun Park.

tennis clinics for Bergen children, free naturestudy classes, guided nature hikes, eight performing-arts presentations, a series of outdoor story hours, the Park Commission's eleventh annual outdoor art show, and the Commission's annual tennis tournament. The performing arts programs included an American heritage song and narration presentation, a country music concert, music by a brass quintet, and a puppet enactment of folk tales. They were presented by the Park Commission in cooperation with the North Jersey Cultural Council.

THE FEES ADD UP

The Park Commission remitted to the County Treasury $1,338,375 in revenue, representing an 11.33 increase over 1974 revenue. Rockleigh Bergen County Golf Course took in the largest amount, $336,931. Next came Overpeck Bergen County Golf Course with $249,126. Darlington County Park swimming season income totaled $226.85. At Orchard Hills Bergen County Golf Course the total was $113,155.

There were 91,852 Bergen residents with 1975 cards entitling them to resident rates at the golf courses, Darlington, Campgaw Mountain Ski Center, the Van Saun Park tennis center, and the two horseback riding facilities. Park Commission registrations totaled 38,257, each registration entitling all listed eligible family members to Park Commission cards. Registration is not necessary for children under 5 or Bergen residents over 65, so there are more Bergen visitors at fee facilities than the registration card total would indicate.

THE INDOOR ARENA enables the riding center to schedule instruction and horse shows without concern for the weather.

TWO PADDOCKS and a bridle trail section were completed in 1975. The trail will be extended as the hydraulic fill settles.

VAN SAUN DRAWS 1,371,400

There is no charge at most of the county park facilities and hence no statistical record of users. Personnel at Van Saun Park, with its popular free children's zoo, reported that the park's approximate 1975 attendance was 1,371,400, some 307,000 higher than in 1974.

Park-use permits totaled 5,509. Permits are required for organization picnics and other group activities in the parks and for the use of ballfields, campsites, and meeting rooms.

New equipment purchased in 1975 included a $59,851 compressor for the ski center and tractors, trucks, spreaders, leaf blowers, chain saws, and snow plows.

During the year, 300 picnic tables were constructed at the County Jail Annex for placement in county parks. The Bergen County Park Commission supplies the lumber and hardware and pays $5 per table to the jail inmates' account. The project is beneficial to the inmates and to the county parks.

The tables are stained in the parks to which they are assigned. In response to requests from the public, Darlington Park received 150 of the new tables. Fifty went to Van Saun Park. Smaller quantities were placed in other county parks.

TABLES BUILT AT JAIL

The Bergen County Park Commission asked approval from the Board of Freeholders for acquisition of approximately 726 acres of property to be annexed to Ramapo Valley County Reservation. The value was appraised at $1,565,350. The Commission received informal approval for State Green Acres matching funds toward the purchase. At year end the Commission was awaiting a report on a second apraisal, which had been requested by the Freeholders.

Default by the contractor halted construction of 18-hole Darlington Bergen County Golf Course, but construction of the golf house and maintenance building proceeded.

BUILDINGS ERECTED

At year end exteriors of the buildings had been painted, interior walls were going up, and mechanical and electrical installations were under way. Also the water line was being installed. The entrance road was nearly completed. Engineering studies were undertaken in preparation for resumption of golf course construction.

A dry chemical fire extinguishing system was installed late in the year at the snack bar areas at Darlington Park and Campgaw Mountain Reservation's visitors' center.

PAINTING IS A BIG JOB

Painting goes on all year in the park system. Among structures painted in 1975 were the Campgaw visitors' center and the golf house at Overpeck Course. Painters refurbished children's railroad trains, bridges, fences, picnic tables, stanchions, posts, rest rooms, and ski lift Park Commission workers installed drinking fountains, scoreboards, horse jumps, playground equipment, benches, flag poles, fencing, stanchions, signs, utility lines, drainage systems. cabinets, barn doors, and assorted other items indoors and out. They dug trenches, carted and graded stone and fill dirt, planted, fertilized, mowed, cleaned, repaired, replaced, rebuilt, sprayed, and raked. They removed debris and snow. They tended plants and zoo animals and assisted park visitors. They kept the log fire burning at Campgaw during ski season and sprayed machine-made snow on the slopes. They maintained high water-quality and safety standards at Darlington Park during the swimming season.

- * While the County of Bergen was the owner in fee of these lands, the State of New Jersey, through extensive negotiations with the County, established its claim that this property (399.29 acres of a total of 813.43 acres in the Overpeck Area) was tidal land and as such was the property of the State. After receiving in payment from the County a fee of $1,000.00 an acre totalling $400,000, the State granted the County a Riparian Grant. Subsequently the State, through the Green Acres Assistance Program, reimbursed the County half the cost ($200,000) of this Riparian Grant.
-  It is interesting to note that the County, through the Bergen County Park Commission, has received from the various State and Government Agencies, 71% of the total cost of the above 10 projects.
