

Department of Human Ecology

Criteria for Appointment and Reappointment of Teaching Assistants

- 1) Progress toward a graduate degree at Rutgers, working with one or more of the faculty in Human Ecology, who will serve as members and/or chair of the candidate's dissertation committee.
- 2) Evidence of expertise, experience, and/or interest in the substantive areas of the course(s) involved.
- 3) Letter of recommendation from a faculty advisor or instructor of a course in which she/he has taught.
- 4) For reappointment, satisfactory performance in the classroom as indicated by student evaluations and evaluation by the supervisory instructor(s).
- 5) All appointments/reappointments are contingent on available funding which is determined both by the level of TA support provided by SEBS and the number of applicants eligible for appointment/reappointment.
- 6) Priorities for reappointment are determined both by the extent to which the applicants meet the above criteria and the needs of the Human Ecology curriculum to offer specific courses requiring TAs in particular semesters.
